The Artisan Collection

The old world look at its best aged

Luxor
COLLECTION

Luxor's Montgomery door in a charcoal finish with a deco panel custom hood give the feel and appearance of an old European country kitchen.

The above kitchen portrays the old world charm with Luxors Sterling door style finished in the warm Caraway color.

The Artisan Collection

The old world look at its best aged

The country hutch incorporates bunfeets, beadboard and framed doors with decorative wire mesh.

The Wellington door style, with hand rubbed finish has an optional "V" edge profile.

The island is mounted on table legs (sixteen models available). To demonstrate the old world look, beadboard panel is mounted on the back of the island such as on the range hood unit.

Look the perfect alignment of the beading on the range hood, and alignment of shelves with mullion stretcher.
